

Alimny e-Learning

The landing page:

- First in the view port the same current design
- Then about alimny
- Then about the developers and designers
- Then contact us

In the navbar:

Left:

Alimny logo

Right :

Signup and login buttons

Signup page:

Same current design but!!

The fields is:

1. first name
2. last name
3. email
4. password
5. birth date
6. username
7. profile picture (upside the form in the center)

if the user used a used email or username an error will show up in a pop-up modal

signin page:

same design also but

the fields is:

1. email
2. password

the same error pop-up if username or password are wrong..

dashboard page:

in the navbar:

left:

alimny logo

then explore button will show small menu of courses categories

right:

cart button

user profile image :

it's a button will show a small menu with:

profile

accomplished

my courses

logout

inside the page:

left:

a small menu contains:

profile image and name (take the user to profile page)

my courses (take the user to it's page) top rated courses (take the user to it's page) settings (take the user to it's page)

Frequently asked questions (take the user to it's page)

Contact us (will show a pop-up form contains : topic , message fields and submit button)

Right :

Show 10 courses the user enrolled in

If there's not show the message "you are not enrolled to any courses"

Then show top 10 courses

The courses will be in a medium box size will show the course (image – name – the last lesson the user finished)

My courses page:

Show all the courses the user enrolled in

But

Every category name then under it the courses related to it

The course will be in a medium box size will show the course (image – name – the last lesson the user finished)

The navbar and left menu will be the same on in the dashboard.

Top rated courses page:

Same as my courses page but will show only the top courses each one on it's own category

The courses will be in a medium box size will show the course (image – name – the last lesson the user finished)

Profile page:

will show all the user data like:

first name

last name

birth date

username

profile picture (upside the form in the center)

each one of them can be edited and if the user edit them an update button will show up under the form navbar and the left menu also same us the dashboard

cart page:

will show the courses (image – name – price)

in a rectangle left of it the course image right of it:

upside

course name

under it with a small font size teacher name and category

then the price

under the page will show the total a small form allow the user to upload a bankak photo and submit it navbar and the left menu also same us the dashboard

main course page:

navbar and the left menu also same us the dashboard

the course photo will be upside then the course name with a medium font size teacher name under it with a small font size and the category name then enroll button or go to lesson button then about the course

lessons list

then the teacher name and picture and about him then the price next to it add to cart button if the user aren't enrolled if yes the show go to lesson button

navbar and the left menu also same as the dashboard

lesson page:

navbar and the left menu also same as the dashboard

lesson name upside the page video will be in the center of the page in the right of the page lessons menu will contain lessons list if it's a video will show video logo if text will show text logo video description under the video then questions page button

navbar and the left menu also same as the dashboard

questions page:

course name and lesson name in medium font size ask question button will show a pop-up form contains:

the question

description about it

media upload like (image – files – videos) optionally

will show list of 20 question in an rectangle contains:

question

under it with a small font size the user who asked the question name

navbar and the left menu also same us the dashboard

question answers page:

will show the question with a large font size upside the page then the description

then will show the media list without preview!!

If it's an image will show an image logo if video will show a video if a file will show a file

Under all of this a form to upload an answer

With the same form of ask question but will contain:

The answer

media upload like (image – files – videos) optionally

navbar and the left menu also same us the dashboard

users answer

in a rectangles:

user name and image

the answer

then will show the media list without preview!!

If it's an image will show an image logo if video will show a video if a file will show a file

Setting page:

navbar same as the dashboard left menu will be changed to:

profile update

reset password

change email

account delete

request data report

contact us

profile update is the same one as the site reset password will change the right part of the page to contain:

last password

new password

verify password fields

if the user entered different passwords pop-up error will show up a message will be sent to the user email to know that his password changed change email will change the right part of the page to contain:

current email

new email fields

a message will be sent to the user email to know that his email changed and will ask him to verify it account delete will change the right part of the page to contain:

a confirm button will start a timer of 30 days then account will be deleted..

request data report will change the right part of the page to contain:

a confirm button will let the server start zipping the user data and then after 3 days will give him access to it contact us same as upside in the landing page

Waiting for suggestions... and editing.